WHITE WINE BY THE BOTTLE
{ Weißwein-Flaschen }

Hilltop Neszmély $24
Cserszegi Füszeres Craftsman 2009
Hungary ~ 100% Cserszegi Füszeres
With a Muscat-like bouquet, a light to medium body and floral and citrus aromatics, this intriguing hungarian specialty ends with a tart and refreshing finish.

Geyerhof, Grüner Veltliner "Rosensteig" 2009 ..... $34
Austria ~ 100% Grüner Veltliner
A rich and plush style of Grüner Veltliner, it offers notes of lemon, apricot and fresh herbs, followed by tropical fruit aromas of pineapple and passion fruit. The viscous mouthfeel provides a rich, lingering finish.

Weinrieder, Grüner Veltliner DAC 2008 ..... $29
Austria ~ 100% Grüner Veltliner
With a light and dry nature, notes of lime, fennel and herbs dominate. Some bready aromas and a dash of white pepper add complexity and spice to a wine that's fantastic with lighter fare.

Hedges CMS White 2008 ..... $20
Columbia Valley, WA ~ Sauvignon Blanc-Chardonnay-Marsanne
Medium bodied and with a perfumed nose of honeysuckle, citrus and fresh herbs, this blend offers bright fruit flavors in harmony with mouthwatering acidity. Both Chardonnay and Marsanne are responsible for the round and pleasant mouthfeel.

Szoke Mátra, Pinot Gris 2008 ..... $24
Hungary ~ 100% Pinot Gris
With toasted bread on the nose and overall restrained aromatics, this is creamy on the palate with subtle pear and lemon notes. More mineral than fruit driven, it offers complex hazelnut and custard flavors throughout.

Castell, Silvaner trocken 2008 ..... $35
Germany ~ 100% Silvaner
Light and highly refreshing, this offers delicate citrus and peach aromas on the palate. A subtle bready note mingling with a touch of wet stone make this wine austere and fruity at the same time.

Graff $30
Piesporter MichelsbergRiesling Kabinett 2007
Germany ~ 100% Riesling
Richly perfumed, with lemon, apple and honey on the nose. Very approachable and with a lush and soft mouthfeel, it offers easy drinking for any Riesling fan.

Montinore Estate, Müller ~ Thurgau 2008 ..... $20
Willamette Valley, OR
100% biodynamically grown Müller ~ Thurgau
Medium bodied and with abundant aromas of citrus, stone fruit, flowers and fresh herbs. Slightly sweet, with a fruity but refreshing nature, this easygoing white is a great match for smoked or spicy dishes.

SPARKLING WINE BY THE BOTTLE
{ Sekt-Flasche }

Biokult, Rosé of Pinot Noir Secco NV $28
Austria ~ 100% biodynamically grown Pinot Noir
A fun wine to start off a dinner at Leopold's.Vibrant and delicate, with notes of strawberry, red cherry and a touch of earthy minerality. Ideal as an aperitif or with lighter dishes.

RED WINE BY THE BOTTLE
{ Rotwein-Flaschen }

River Road Pinot Noir 2009 ..... $28
Russian River Valley, California ~ 100% Pinot Noir
Medium bodied and with generous strawberry and red cherry fruit, the juicy but complex aromas are supported by a touch of barnyard and cedar, making this a great match with any hearty dish.

Eszterbauer Kadarka Nagyápam 2009 ..... $32
Hungary ~ 100% Kadarka
Medium bodied and with a gorgeous nose of brambly fruit and allspice, this Grenache-like specialty boasts boysenberry, dried fruits and herbs on the palate, leading to a pleasant and persistent finish.

Vylyan Villány Pinot Noir 2006 ..... $34
Hungary ~ 100% Pinot Noir
Medium bodied and with dusty strawberry, red cherry and dried leaf aromas, this is old-world in style with lots of snappy acidity and a supple mouthfeel.

Juris, St. Laurent "Selection" 2007 ..... $34
Austria ~ 100% St. Laurent
With a light to medium body, this gem offers black and sour cherry aromas on the nose. The silky mouthfeel reveals fine notes of licorice, spice and earth, leading to a gorgeous finish. A must-try for any Burgundy fan.

Dubaril, Gamay 2008 ..... $30
Switzerland ~ 100% Gamay
Light to medium bodied with an intense bouquet of red cherry, spice and forest floor. Animated on the palate and with pleasant acidity, its texture is seamless and silky throughout. Think Beaujolais cru.

Grafen Neippberg, Lemberger 2006 ..... $34
Germany ~ 100% Lemberger (Blaufränkisch)
Medium bodied and with a soft, chewy texture, it boasts raspberry and black cherry aromas on the palate. A touch of smoke and some herbal spice lend complexity to an already complete wine.

Eristavi Winery, Zinfandel 2009 ..... $29
Dry Creek Valley, California ~ 100% Zinfandel
Medium bodied and with delicious red cherry and raspberry fruit that finishes with a touch of dark chocolate and spicy oak. Made in an elegant and balanced style, it will complement full flavored, hearty dishes.

DESSERT WINE BY THE BOTTLE { Dessertwein-Flaschen }

Rosenhof, Welschriesling Trockenbeerenauslese 2001, 375ml $9/36
(Austria) 100% Welschriesling
Lusciously textured and with a tad of muskiness on the nose, this medium to full bodied treat retained its high acidity to balance out the residual sugar and rich flavors of honey, apricot, prune and raisin. A fine choice with creamy cheeses or any dessert on the menu.

ORGANIC CIDER { Organischer-Apfelwein }

Wandering Aengus Ciderworks, Wanderlust 22oz., 6.9% abv $13
(Oregon) 100% organically grown Oregon apples
Harmonious notes of apple skin, cinnamon and fresh ginger spice make this a great choice for any occasion or meal.